

IMPERIAL SPEECHES IN AMMIANUS MARCELLINUS: A MASTER CLASS WITH JAN WILLEM DRIJVERS (UNIVERSITY OF GRONINGEN)

JULY 20TH, 9. 30AM, MACQUARIE UNIVERSITY – MOOT COURT, BUILDING W3A ROOM 238

PARTICIPATION IS RESTRICTED TO POSTGRADUATE AND UPPER-LEVEL UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Assoc. Prof. Drijvers is a distinguished scholar of late Roman studies, whose many publications range from seminal works on the empress Helena, mother of the first Christian emperor Constantine, to a series of scholarly commentaries on the key late Roman historian Ammianus Marcellinus. His current research projects include a monograph on the emperor Jovian and new commentaries on the Panegyrici Latini. This is his first visit to Australia and offers a crucial opportunity for students of Roman and late antique studies in particular to benefit from his expertise in this area.

Students from outside MQ are also welcome. To confirm attendance, please email meaghan.mcevoy@mq.edu.au by July 4th."
